A Long Way After Longfellow

The Monday sun was sinking fast,

As by the city's stores there passed

A business card-Thereon the brand

In windows bright he saw the glow

Of countless treasures set for show,

But in his mind abode one thought-

A Furnisher cried "turn and see

My show of haberdasherie.

Within, the shoppers priced and bought

GUSKY'S!

Who's stock with this can e'er compete?"

The youth replied far down the street-

"Try not to pass," a clothier cried,

"The lowest prices are just inside."

VIGILANTES ON DECK.

An Armed Band of Citizens After the McClellandtown Fiends.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] UNIONTOWN, March 22 .- At intervals from 7 o'clock to midnight last night men on horseback, mostly alone, occasionally in pairs, were seen to leave Uniontown, appearing at random from all directions, but all galloping away toward the mountains. Few who saw them suspected that this was a party of vigilantes, organized secretly, and which has been the only organized expedition yet made to capture the McClellandtown robbers. There were ten from Uniontown and five from the vicinity of the latest outrages of the band, among them two of the vicinity from the vicinity of the latest outrages of the band, among them two of the vicinity from the vicinity of the vicinity for the vicinity from the vicinity of the vicinity from McClellandtown two of the vicinity from the vicinity of the vicinity from McClellandtown two of the vicinity from the vicinity of the vicinity from McClellandtown the vicinity of the vicinity from McClellandtown the vicinity of the vicinity from McClellandtown the vicinity of th two of the victims from McClellandtown. They were to have been joined by 25 or 30 picked men along the road and from the vicinity of the outlaws' camp, near Markleysburg where the people are greatly excited and will-ing to aid in removing the bad gang from among them. They appointed a meeting place near the point of assault, and were to assemble quietly after midnight, and no attack was to have been made until after daybreak this morning. The gang had been under surveil-ance, and they were known to be still enscouced in the Hill house yesterday, and the movements of the posse were made as quietly as possible, to avoid letting the band know of the intended assault.

TO BE SHOT OR STARVED.

The party were all well armed with revolvers, and the delegation from here had 12 Winches-ter rifles. The mountaineers all kept themselves well supplied with firearms and the whole party made a body of considerable strength. Should an assault fail to surprise the inmates

Should an assault fail to surprise the inmates and capture them, the party proposed to surround the house and starve the gang out, shooting anyone who made his appearance with arms.

To-night word was received here that the vigitantes had tried to force an entrance into the log house in which the robbers are at bay, during which shots were exchanged on both sides without injuring anyone. The robbers refuse to surrender and are prepared to sell their lives as dearly as possible, and to die if they cannot escape under cover of darkness. Nine men and three women constitute the party in the house, among whom Lewis, Sullivan and Ramsey were recognized.

BEOUGHT TO BAY.

BROUGHT TO BAY. The attacking party have the house all sur-rounded, and are watched at a safe distance by about 100 wondering mountaineers, who have no arms. All the armed men in the neighborhood have joined the posse. The outlaws have an abundance of ammunition, four Winchester rifles and 16 revolvers, and are not afraid to use them. The attacking party are proffered a cannon, which is in the vicinity, with which to batter down the house, but hesitate as yet to use it until they can ascertain if they can do so legally. The principal reason for the messenger's trip was for information on this point. The intelligence that the band was corraited spread like wildfire here, and soon Sheriff Miller had started for the seens of the difficulty with a large posse raised here. The vicinity of the robbers' den is ablaze with excitement, men hurrying there from all parts of the mountains, and, with a good leader, they expect to finally land the band in jail.

DENIES THE STORY.

Superintendent Waters, of the Orphani School, Tells Another Tale.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 UNIONTOWN, March 22.-In regard to the Orphans' Home, who were captured at Braddock, Superintendent Waters pronounces the-tale of Reams' cruel beating as without any foundation. He says Reams is his most troublesome pupil, that in the six years he has troublesome pupil, that in the six years he nas been at the school he has ran off 15 times, the other three boys also having run off a number of times, and that they can only keep them there by watching to prevent their making off. Rev. Waters says that Reams was not whipped at all, and it is known here that punishment by the rod is forbidden. Mr. Waters having some time ago discharged a teacher for using one. The food supply is good, and the heaith of the 250 pupils would indicate as much.

NATURALIZED AT LAST. A Rather Peculiar Case Comes From Wash-Ington County.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, PA., March 22.-Richard Hill, of Burgettstown, took out his naturaliza tion papers, on Thursday. Mr. Hill came to this country from Wales when he was a baby. When he was of age he commenced voting and continued to do so for 21 years. During that time he was elected to the Council of Burgettstime he was elected to the Council of Burgettstown several times and no one ever disputed his eligibility. A short time previous to the spring election this year, he heard that some persons were going to cinhlenge his vote on the ground that his father had no right to vote.

Mr. Hill's father being dead, and he having no proof at hand, refrained from going to the polls, and to avoid trouble concluded to get naturalized. He was a soldier during the late war and served out his full term of enlistment.

EXTENSIVE MAIL ROBBERY. A Note for $10,000 Belleved to Have Been in the Pouch.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 PIEDMONT, W. VA., March 22,-1t is believed that the stolen mail ponch which was found ripped open and secreted in a culvert near here erday, contained a large amount of money and valuable letters. It has been known here and valuable letters. It has been known here for some days that mail had gone astray, as checks for large amounts had been sent, but were not heard from. Among the missing mail was a note for $10,000 sent from the Piedmont Bank.

How much money the robbers secured cannot be ascertained at this time. Detectives from Washington are here looking up the case. Whether the pouch was stolen out of the car or from the platform before it was put in the car is not yet known.

Tragic Death of a Pioneer.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEWARE, March 22.-Mrs. Krum, an old lady 55 years of age, met with a fatal accident last night. Mrs. Krum was slightly deranged, and about midnight, while at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Stetzer, residing in the daugnter, are Joan Stetzer, residing in the western part of this county, she went to the window of her room and fell out. She struck the ground with such violence as to cause injuries from which she died in a few minutes. The old lady was of German birth, and came to this State when it was nothing but a wilderness. Her tragic death caused the greatest sorrow.

Organizing for Prohibition.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BRADDOCK, March 22.-The Braddock per ple started the fight for temperance to-night, by the formation of a Constitutional Amendby the formation of a Constitutional Amend-ment Club, with the following officers: Presi-dent, Major B. E. Stewart; Vice Presidents, Rev. T. N. Boyle, W. L. Lapsey and Robert Cogan; Sacretary, Frank E. Louis; Carrespond-ing Secretary, Joe L. Campbell; Treasurer, Joseph P. McCune. The roll was started with several hundred names.

Fallure of a Coal Strike. INPECIAL TRLEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. 1

MANSFIELD VALLEY, March 22.-The Grant mines have resumed operations after a six months' shutdown. The Imperial Coal Company's works as Imperial have also started, and are running full. The outside men struck three months ago against a reduction of 10 cents per day, and have been idle ever since. They go back at the company's terms.

Tri-State Brevities.

JUDGE HAZEN at Butler yesterday grante 19 out of 24 license applications made to him. HIGHWAYMEN assaulted and robbed Thomas Menough, of Pittsburg, at North Baltimore, O., Thursday night, BURGLARS entered the private office of Presi dent H. C. Fry, at the Rochester Tumbler Works, by forcing the door with a jimmy. They utterly wrecked the safe, which was a very large one. They found only $8 or $10 within, and when they departed left behind them 2 silk umbrellas, a revolver, 2 braces, 1 Morse twist drill with a diamond point, and 3 chisels. There is no clew yet to the burglars.

Clay. As David Dutro, a wealthy farmer, and his wife, residing about eight miles south of this city, were about to retire, a rap was heard at the door. Mr. Dutro opened the door, and as he did so a revolver was thrust into his face with the demand "Your money or your life." Mr. Dutro, although 60 years of age, sprang at the stranger, who was masked, and a desperate struggle cusued. Mrs. Dutro slipped out during the fight to arouse the neighbors and it is supposed that her absence on this errand alarmed the robber, for he ran away.

that her absence on this errand alarmed the robber, for he ran away.

Mr. Dutro fastened the house and went to search for his wife. He did not find her and roused the neighbors. A posse was made up and the search continued till morning, when she was found lying at the foot of a precipice 20 feet high. Three ribs were broken, and she is suffering from the servous shock, but it is thought she will recover.

> CONTINENTAL STEAM COOKER On MONDAY, March 25. The peculiar construction of this article, by which the food jar is completely inclosed within the boiler or steamer, secures the greatest speed and economy ever attained in cooking by steam.

It can be done in the "Continental" in little more than half the time required in the single top cookers, as the food jar is completely enveloped in steam; and when this condenses between the two covers, the water runs back through the perforations of the shoulder 'on which the jar rests and replenishes the supply in the boiler.

The food is simmered or stewed in such a way as to retain all its nutriment and delicate flavors. Fruit cooked in this way is not discolored, nor broken, as it is never necessary to stir it; but it comes out whole, and with its choice and natural food properties unimpaired—quite a different article from most of the stewed and canned fruits served on our tables.
